quarried in the rock-mass. And, after rolling a big stone to the door of the memorial tomb, he left.^a 61 But Mary Magdalene and the other Mary continued there, sitting before the grave.^b 62 The next day, which was after the Preparation,^c the chief priests and the Pharisees gathered together before Pilate, 63 saying: "Sir, we have called to mind that that impostor said while yet alive, 'After three days^d I am to be raised up.' 64 Therefore command the grave to be made secure until the third day, that his disciples may never come and steal^e him and say to the people, 'He was raised up from the dead!' and this last imposture will be worse than the first." 65 Pilate said to them: "You have a guard.^f Go make it as secure as you know how." 66 So they went and made the grave secure by sealing the stone^g and having the guard.

28 After the sabbath, when it was growing light on the first day of the week, Mary Magdalene and the other Mary came to view the grave.^h

2 And, notice! a great earthquake had taken place; for Jehovah's angel had descended from heaven and approached and rolled away the stone, and was sitting on it.ⁱ 3 His outward appearance was as lightning,^j and his clothing as white as snow.^k 4 Yes, for fear of him the watchmen trembled and became as dead men.

5 But the angel^l in answer said to the women: "Do not you be fearful, for I know you are looking for Jesus^m who was impaled. 6 He is not here, for he was raised up,ⁿ as he said. Come, see the place where he was lying. 7 And go quickly and tell his disciples that he was raised^o up from the dead, and, look! he is going ahead of you into Gal'i-lee;^a there you will see him. Look! I have told you."^b 8 So, quickly leaving the memorial tomb, with fear and great joy, they ran to report to his disciples.^c 9 And, look! Jesus met them and said: "Good day!" They approached and caught him by his feet and did obeisance to him. 10 Then Jesus said to them: "Have no fear! Go, report to my brothers,^d that they may go off into Gal'i-lee; and there they will see me."^e

11 While they were on their way, look! some of the guard^f went into the city and reported to the chief priests all the things that had happened. 12 And after these had gathered together with the older men and taken counsel, they gave a sufficient number of silver pieces to the soldiers.^g 13 and said: "Say, 'His disciples^h came in the night and stole him while we were sleeping.' 14 And if this gets to the governor's ears, we will persuade him and will set you free from worry."ⁱ 15 So they took the silver pieces and did as they were instructed; and this saying has been spread abroad among the Jews up to this very day.

16 However, the eleven disciples went into Gal'i-lee^j to the mountain where Jesus had arranged for them, 17 and when they saw him they did obeisance, but some doubted.^k 18 And Jesus approached and spoke to them, saying: "All authority^l has been given me in heaven and on the earth. 19 Go therefore and make disciples^m of people of all the nations,ⁿ baptizing^o them in the name of the Father^p and of the Son^q and of the holy spirit,^r 20 teaching^s them to observe^t all the things I have commanded you.^u And, look! I am with you^v all the days until the conclusion of the system of things."^w

ACCORDING TO MARK

1 The beginning of the good news about Jesus Christ: 2 Just as it is written in Isaiah the prophet: "(Look! I am sending forth my messenger before your face, who will prepare your way.)" 3 listen! someone is crying out in the wilderness, 'Prepare the way of Jehovah, you people, make his roads straight.'^a 4 John the baptizer turned up in the wilderness, preaching baptism in symbol of repentance for forgiveness of sins.^b 5 Consequently all the territory of Judea and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem made their way out to him, and they were baptized by him in the Jordan River, openly confessing their sins.^c 6 Now John was clothed with camel's hair and with a leather girdle around his loins,^d and was eating insect locusts^e and wild honey.^f 7 And he would preach, saying: "After me someone stronger than I am is coming; I am not fit to stoop and untie the laces of his sandals.^g 8 I baptized you with water, but he will baptize you with holy spirit."^h

9 In the course of those days Jesus came from Nazareth of Gal'i-lee and was baptized in the Jordan by John.ⁱ 10 And immediately on coming up out of the water he saw the heavens being parted, and, like a dove, the spirit^j coming down upon him;^k 11 and a voice came out of the heavens: "You are my Son, the beloved; I have approved you."^l

12 And immediately the spirit^m impelled him to go into the wilderness.ⁿ 13 So he continued in the wilderness forty days,^o being tempted by Satan,^p and he was with the wild beasts, but the angels were ministering to him.^q

MATTHEW 28:11-MARK Contents

11 While they were on their way, some of the guards^a went into the city and reported to the chief priests all the things that had happened. 12 And after these had gathered with the elders and had consulted together, they gave a considerable number of silver pieces to the soldiers. 13 and said: "Say, 'His disciples came in the night and stole him while we were sleeping.' 14 And if this gets to the governor's ears, we will explain the matter to^b him and you will not need to worry." 15 So they took the silver pieces and did as they were instructed, and this story has been spread abroad among the Jews up to this very day.
